We only process data where necessary and lawful.

Privacy & Cookie Policy

Legal Grounds for Processing

We process your data based on:

- Consent (e.g., optional analytics cookies)
- Legitimate interest (e.g., communication, website security)
- Contractual necessity (when entering into an agreement)
- Legal obligations

Data Retention

We store personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and only as long as reasonably required:

- Contact inquiries: up to 12 months
- Administrative/business data: as long as legally required
- Cookie data: according to cookie type (see “Use of Cookies” below)

Sharing of Personal Data

We do not sell or trade your data. We may share data only with:

- Service providers necessary for website hosting and maintenance
- Email or cloud-service providers
- Legal authorities if required by law

Your Rights (GDPR)

Under the GDPR, you have the right to:

- Access, correct or request deletion of your personal data
- Limit or object to processing
- Request data portability
- Withdraw consent at any time

You may submit your request through our contact options, and we will reply within 30 days.

Data Security

The Digital Resilience Group B.V. takes the protection of your data seriously and implements appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access, unwanted disclosure, and unauthorized modification. If you have the impression that your data is not adequately protected or suspect any misuse, please reach out to us immediately via our contact options.

Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to external sites (e.g., LinkedIn, Google Maps). We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties. Always review their policies before sharing your data.

Privacy & Cookie Policy

Use of Cookies

This website uses cookies and similar technologies. Cookies are small text files stored on your device to make the website function and improve performance.

- Essential cookies are required, cannot be turned off and ensure:
 - Website security
 - Basic functionality
 - Server performance and load balancing
- Functional cookies are used to remember user preferences and support embedded features.
- Analytics cookies are used to analyse anonymised visitor behaviour, such as page views, session statistics, and performance metrics. You may:
 - Delete cookies
 - Block cookies
 - Adjust browser preferences

Please note: disabling certain cookies may affect website performance.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this combined Privacy & Cookie Policy when:

- Our services change
- Our website functionality changes
- Laws or regulations require changes

Updates will be published on this page with a revised date.
